DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND MEASURES.

A strict construction of the Constitution, and no assumption of doubtful powers.

A Diplomacy asking for nothing but what is clearly right and submitting to nothing wrong. No connexion between the government and banks. An ad valorem revenue tariff.

No public debt, either by the General Government or by the States, except for objects of urgent necessity.

No assumption by the General Government of the debts of the States, either directly or indirectly, by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands. No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government or by the States.

A constitutional barrier against improvident State The honest payment of our debts and the sacred preservation of the public faith. A gradual return from a paper credit system. No grants of exclusive charters and privileges by special legislation to banks. No swindling corporations. No connexion between Church and State.

A preference for Democrats over Whigs for every office.

Acquiescence in the rule of the majority in all cases of party discipline. No proscription for honest opinions.

Fostering aid to public education.

A "progressive" reformation of all abuses.

EARLY COPIES. A late atrangement with the British publishers of Blackwood's Magazine secures to us early sheets of that work, by which we shall be able to place the entire number in the hands of subscribers before any portion of it can be reprinted in any of the American Journals. For this and other advantages secured to our subscribers, we pay so large a consideration, that we may be compelled to raise the price of the Magazine. Therefore we repeat 'su's scribe while the p ice is low." Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post paid or franked, to the publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., 79 Fulton st., New York. PATENT CORPSE PRESERVER. THE attention of the public is respectfully invited to this newly invented apparatus. The object for which it is intended is perfectly to preserve corpes from decay for any length of time, without being any wise offensive to delieucy, or unseemly in ep pearance. The value of such a machine cannot be estimated but by those tender feelings which long for the preservation of a de arted friend; and among those who have been compelled to use it on account of the fast decaying of their friends, a general and pleasing satisfaction has been given; for none can speak too high ly of such an important and useful invention. Benevolent institut tions and all others who desire to delay funerals until the arm aof distant relatives, or to make suitable preparation for interment, can, by use of this machine, preserve them for weeks in a perfectly inoffensive state, allowing all to gaze upon them. The undersigned has secured the patent for Marion county of this valuable and much needed apparatus. It can be used in the best room in the house without the least inconvenience, and if it does not give satisfaction, no charge will be made. This appara tus can be seen and will be applied by the undersigned, Undertaker and Goffin Maker, at his old stand, of the Eagle, Main street, N. B .- The undersigned has two hearses and carriages, and the hest and most careful hands in his employ; so that, if it should happen that he is absent on professional duty, that all orders left at his place of business, will be attended to in as good style, and as punctually, as though he himself was there. The impression - - 6A.M. being abroad that when professionally absent no person would at-
